WE ARE ALL HERE.

The Pennyroyal Fair opens to-day and it is the one thing upon which we can all unite and pull together. The fair emphasizes the most progressive spirit of Hopkinsville people and its remarkable success last year will be repeated with added emphasis this week. As a county fair, it is in a class by itself. It is something more than a county fair, standing for all that is best in a great section of the state. The name was happily chosen and the co-operation of the people of our neighbor counties has already wiped out county lines and it is in fact a Western Kentucky fair. Every department is crowded with exhibits. The cry for more room is being met as well as possible, but by another year there must be added a doubling of the capacity for stock and for people. A list of the entries in the speed rings published to-day will show the condition of things in other departments. The cattle barns are overflowing, the hog pens are crowded, the poultry show is packed with 1000 birds. The floral hall is fuller than ever before and a whole building is devoted to the Educational exhibits. The fair is the pride of Hopkinsville, the show features are all right, the weather is ideal and the people are coming by the thousand. All together and let's make it a howling success.

The Berlin Tageblatt says that in view of the enormous sacrifices made by Germany, Dr. von Bothmann, Hollweg, the imperial chancellor, and Gen. von Moltke, chief of the general staff, could agree to peace only after Germany's future position had been made quite unassailable. This viewpoint, the paper contends, is in conformity with public opinion throughout Germany.

The Petit Parisien says that the French commander-in-chief has been compelled to send back the African troops transported to France because they were not fitted for the winter campaign. The strengthening of the French forces in Morocco also is reported to be necessary.

The Carnegie Public Library was formerly opened yesterday and cards are now being issued to citizens of Hopkinsville. The rules issued by the Board are crowded out of this issue.

The City of Los Angeles has stopped collections by the Salvation Army on the ground that one-third of its charity funds are not spent in the city as required by an ordinance.

The Senate Finance Committee took up the War Revenue Bill yesterday. An effort will be made in the Senate to change the tax on gasoline to one on automobiles.

Ultimate independence for the Philippines is planned in the Jones Bill brought before the House yesterday with a special rule limiting debate to twelve hours.

The first year's operation of the Wisconsin eugenical law shows a shortage of 1500 marriages, although many couples left the state to wed.

Judge John S. Rhea is likely to have opposition for circuit judge in the Russellville district by S. Walton Forgy, of Elkton.

Why not send the Russian General Kutusoff to cut off Gen. von Klueck? There is nothing like adhering to the fitness of things.

George Fred Williams, Sir Lionel Carden and A. Rassem Bey, are diplomats who talked their fool heads off.

It will probably be necessary to keep troops at Vera Cruz as long as Villa and Zapata are unhung.

That woman policeman in Somerset will probably balk when called on to take her turn.

Germans Hurl Men Against British Front Only to Be Repulsed
With Heavy Losses, Official Statements of War Bureau's Report.

THE INVADERS LOSSES REACH TO 104,000.

News From Petrograd is That Austrians Are Retreating From Przemys After Having Been Shelled by Russian Artillery.

On the Battle Front, Sept. 27.—(Via Paris, Sept. 28.)—Desperate attempts made by the Germans on the western end of the long line of battle to break through the allies' forces, which are engaged in a turning movement, have resulted in the most furious fighting that has taken place since the beginning of the campaign.

After fighting without respite day and night, corps after corps of Germans was hurled against the flower of the French and English armies today only to be thrown back.

The infantry bore the brunt of the incessant fighting, but the artillery of both armies continued throughout twenty-four hours to bombard each others' positions. Hand to hand combats occurred at many points and bayonets were used freely.

The French Colonial infantry, most of whose men wear medals for bravery in colonial campaigns, was to the fore and beside these men fought the black Senegalese troops, while further along the line the British troops held an important point with the greatest determination.

The French troops showed more than their accustomed dash in attacks and everywhere acts of wonderful courage were performed. The cavalry also participated in the engagements at many points, the allies' horses having enjoyed a long rest which enabled this arm of the service to distinguish itself. The famous Scotch Greys, finding the color of their horses offered a prominent mark for the German riflemen, dyed their mounts brown.

The French General Marquet has met death on the field.

German Casualties.

Berlin, Sept. 28.—The total German casualties in dead, wounded and missing, as officially reported to date, are 104,589.

The casualty list announced yesterday adds a total of 10,527 casualties to those previously announced. The total casualty list is made up as follows:

Dead, 15,674; wounded, 65,908; missing, 23,007.

Austrians In Retreat.

London, Sept. 28.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Petrograd says:

Bombs Dropped on Paris.

Paris, Sept. 28.—Four bombs were dropped on Paris from a German aeroplane yesterday. One missile exploded in Avenue du Trocadero and blew the head from the shoulders of a man standing on a corner with his daughter. The child was wounded. The other bomb did little damage.

Crowds taking advantage of a beautiful autumn day were promenading on the banks of the Seine when the aerial warrior appeared almost directly over the Eiffel tower. It is believed the first bomb dropped was intended for the wireless station on the tower or possibly for nearby buildings containing army stores. It landed in Avenue du Trocadero not far from the tower and the explosion was heard for many blocks. Houses in the vicinity were badly damaged. The bomb struck only a block from the American embassy at number five Rue de Chaillot, where Ambassador Myron T. Herrick, who did not accompany the government to Bordeaux, still makes his home.

In the wake of the bomb fluttered a German flag. At the sound of the explosion the promenaders first rushed for shelter, and then, as the airship moved on, hurried to the scene of the havoc.

A cordon of police was thrown about the debris, and the mangled body of the man was found and removed. Near his body the girl was discovered.

Among the houses damaged was the residence of the prince of Monaco. The buildings containing army stores suffered considerably.

Servians Sent Hot Answer.

Nish, Servia, Sept. 28.—According to reports reaching here from Belgrade, when a representative of the Austrian commander, bearing a white flag, was admitted to the presence of the Servian commander with a demand for the surrender of the capital, the Servian officer replied:

"Return to your camp, and in three hours you will receive my answer from the cannon's mouth."

Three hours later a Servian battery opened fire on the Austrian positions across the Danube.

Japs Defeat Germans.

Tokio, Sept. 28.—It is officially announced that the Japanese have defeated the Germans in a fourteen-hour battle on the outskirts of Tsing Tau, seat of government on the German leased possession of Kiaochow, China.

Japanese casualties are given as three killed and twelve wounded. According to the statement the fight began September 26. German gunboats bombarded the Japanese troops. Japanese aeroplanes proved effective in reconnoitering expeditions and are reported to have escaped unharmful.

ENDURANCE RIDERS
PASS BOWLING GREEN.

Four of the seven starters in the 600 mile motorcycle endurance race left Bowling Green Thursday morning, on muddy roads, to push through as far as they can. This is the second attempt made to make the run, the first being stopped by rain. On a professional riders are in this trip, which started from Louisville Wednesday morning, and three dropped at Mammoth Cave. Kline, Becker and Walker decided to quit. Those still in the running are Baker, Tumbener, Pardon and Marshall, their records being clean. They will attempt to cover the distance from Louisville to Owensboro and return before they quit. Baker fell off his mount Wednesday and hurt his knee, but will stick to the run.—Louisville Post.

J. M. RENSHAW SHOT DOWN BY AN ASSASSIN

Waylaid at Bridge On Clarksville Pike Late Friday Afternoon.

BULLET STILL IN HIS HEAD.

Dillard Young A Strange Negro, Held on Suspicion-- Sheriff Smith Working On Case.

John M. Renshaw, former Sheriff of Christian county, who lives on the Clarksville pike about a mile from the city limits, was shot by an assassin Friday afternoon at four o'clock, on or near the bridge that spans the East fork of Little river, about half way between his home and the city. Mr. Renshaw started to town in his buggy on business and was shot from the roadside in the vicinity of the iron bridge. The bullet entered his head below the right ear and ranged upward apparently into the brain. Mr. Renshaw was rendered unconscious but did not fall out of the buggy. His horse kept on up the hill toward town and about two hundred yards West of the bridge his son, Jarred R. Renshaw, who was returning from the fair grounds, met his father sitting in a bent position in his buggy bareheaded, his hat having fallen off. As they met, the son rushed to his assistance and discovered that he had been shot. He turned the buggy around and drove home as fast as he could and telephoned for physicians and three doctors were soon on the scene and a brief examination was made and it was thought best to bring Mr. Renshaw to the Jennie Stuart Memorial Hospital, where an effort was made to locate the bullet. Brain matter was oozing from the wound and pieces of skull were removed in an operation that did not restore consciousness. Mr. Renshaw's condition was regarded as hopeless from the first. He has lingered in an unconscious condition, and was still alive yesterday, uttering incoherent words at times, but making no rational statement.

The only clue points to two negroes who were seen sitting on the right side of the bridge as Mr. Renshaw approached. A little son of Mr. Fred Harned, returning from school, passed them on the bridge, met Mr. Renshaw beyond the bridge and heard the shot a little later. A colored man named Ernest Bell, who was at a barn on the Carroll place near by, saw the two men on the bridge. One was tall and the other short, both black and well dressed. A negro man over in W. T. Fowler's field in sight of the bridge and a colored woman who lives at the old toll gate house West of the bridge were near enough to have seen the men. Following the shooting, they are believed to have run down the river to the T. C. Railroad crossing and then to have separated.

A negro corresponding in description to the tall one was arrested at Elgoten Saturday afternoon and Sheriff J. W. Smith, being notified, went after him. Tracks had been discovered on the river bank and the man's shoe appears to fit one set of them. He is held on suspicion.

One theory is that the shooting may have been done by a negro who had been whipped recently by Jarred Renshaw for stealing chickens, but this is not considered probable. The accepted theory is that the motive was robbery and after shooting Mr. Renshaw the men took to their heels. He had a purse containing $50 in his pocket, which was not molested. Sheriff Smith acted with great promptness and vigor as soon as he learned of the outrage. With his deputies, Lieut. Hawkins and Officer Jones of the police force and a posse composed of Vego Barnes, J. J. Cliborne and Harvey McCord an

There is to be no baby show at the fair this year.

A Hawesville dispatch says it is probable that Honcock, a dry county for 20 years, will ask for a vote on prohibition, if the wets can get up a petition with 25 per cent. of the voters.

Now that the nights are longer than the days some folks in Elizabethtown won't have so long to loaf. —Elizabethtown News.

And busy Hopkinsville people have to work awhile after dark.

While this warfare is being waged against illiteracy in Kentucky we hope it will get the fellow who says, "I haven't saw." —Elizabethtown News.

How about the man who seen him when he done it?

The former federal sympathizers in Vera Cruz are acting wisely in getting out of Mexico before the Americans leave. As soon as they are free to do as they please with their enemies, the constitutionalists are sure to start a saturnalia of bloodshed.

Theodore Roosevelt's youngest daughter, Ethel, wife of Dr. Richard Derby, will nurse the wounded in the hospitals of Paris and her husband will be a surgeon in the French city. The two sailed Saturday. Richard Derby, Jr., their six-months-old baby, will be taken care of at Col. Roosevelt's home in Oyster Bay. Dr. Derby will go abroad in response to the call issued by Dr. Joseph A. Blake, head of the American ambulance corps in Paris, for six surgeons and a pathologist.

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, speaking at a meeting in London in support of Lord Kitchener's appeal for recruits, said a war to crush militarism had the heartiest approval of women who had fought for political enfranchisement. "When the proper time comes," Mrs. Pankhurst added, "we shall resume that fight, but for the present we must all do our best to beat back a common foe."

The night rider outrage Saturday night at Macedonia was followed by a highway robbery in Hopkinsville and by the assassination of a prominent citizen on the Caneyville place. It is side of one week. Christian county cannot stand for these things and the perpetrators of such crimes should be run to earth and severely punished. Night riding and assassination are crimes of which the Governor should take notice and offer rewards for the apprehension of the guilty.

Quick, Diogenes, the lantern! Our old friend, Frank G. Carpenter, who has knocked about the world a bit, and who has seen many cimes and lands, has lost faith in the honesty of the human race. Writing from Valparaiso concerning the employment of women as conductors on the street cars of that city he says: "They make good servants, and although they have to be watched as to turning in all the fares, they are more honest than the men and boys who are supposed to be in the controversy, favoring the

EFFECTIVE FLY KILLER

Cod Liver Oil Declared to Be Far More Valuable Than Anything in Use.

Doctor Lang, government veterinary surgeon at Noumea, New Caledonia, has just discovered a new virtue in cod liver oil; he finds it is a powerful insecticide. He has used it especially against certain flies that are attracted by wounds upon horses and cattle, pestering the poor creatures and infesting the sores. He wipes the skin of the animal with cod liver oil; the flies come and are instantly killed.

Doctor Lang says that ticks on dogs and other animals are killed by a drop of this oil. He recommends that when wounds are receiving the open-air and sunlight treatment they be covered with cod-liver oil, as this will prevent any infection.

Cod liver oil poured on the surface of stagnant pools and marshes is said to kill the larvae of mosquitoes more surely and quickly than even coal oil, over which it has this other advantage—that it does not evaporate.

Publisher Richmond "Coaster" Waco, Texas, says that Grigby's Liv-Ver-Lax cured him.

Read his statement.

Most people of sedentary occupation such as Editors, Bookkeepers, office employees, stenographers and others who spend their lives indoors are more subject to the ravages of malaria than those who take a large amount of exercises out of doors.

Mr. Shannon devotes much of his time to writing and was a great sufferer from bilious headaches until he took Liv-Ver-Lax.

On his own statement, this renowned remedy cured him, just as surely as it will cure you of Constipation or other malarial symptoms. These symptoms are the signals ahead of serious complications if not eliminated.

There is no compromise with malaria. You must get it or it will get you. The ounce of prevention in the form of Liv-Ver-Lax may save even your life from Malaria, from which nearly every one in this climate suffers in a greater or less degree, develops rapidly when it once gets a hold on your system. Could Not Write.

Versailles, Ky.—Mrs. Elisha Green of this place, says: "I could not write all the different pains I had, when I first tried Cardui. I could scarcely walk. Now I am able to run the sewing machine and do my work; and my neighbors tell me the medicine must be good, for I look so much better." Cardui is a specific, paid relieving, tonic remedy, for women. In the past 50 years, it has been found to relieve women's unnecessary pains, and female misery, for which over a million suffering women have successfully used it. Try Cardui for your troubles. It will help you. At the nearest drug store.—Advertisement.

PUZZLED THE PARTY.

Being a funny man, he was at it again, spinning his latest yarns to the joyous party.

"I say," he remarked, "I bet none of you can answer this riddle."

"Well, what is it?" the question came in chorus.

"Can you name an animal that has eyes and cannot see, legs and cannot walk, but can jump as high as the Eiffel tower?"

For a moment there was silence, while brains were being racked. Then:

"I don't know," said some one. "I give it up."

The other members of the party also signified that they were beaten. "The answer," said the funny man, "is a 'wooden horse.' It has eyes, but can't see; legs, but can't walk."

"Yes," came a triumphant shout, "that's all very well, but what about it jumping as high as the Eiffel tower?"

"Can the Eiffel tower jump?" sighed the funny man.

BUSY.

"You're not putting up the game we expected of you," said the baseball fan, reproachfully.

"Be reasonable!" replied the Eminent Player. "I've had to interview my lawyer, and sit for photographs, and keep my secretary supplied with material for literary work, nor to mention looking out for stuff for my monologue next winter. A man can't do everything at once."

Stop That First Fall Cough.

Check your fall cough or cold at once—don't wait—it may lead to serious lung trouble, weaken your vitality and develop a chronic lung ailment. Get a bottle of Dr. B's Pine-Tar-Honey to-day; it is pure and harmless—use it freely for that fall cough or cold. If Baby or Children are sick give it to them, it will relieve quickly and permanently. It soothes the irritated throat, lungs and air passages. Loosens phlegm, is antiseptic and fortifies the system against colds. It surely prevents cold germs from getting a hold. Guaranteed. Only 25c at your druggist.—Advertisement.

"QUICK SERVICE" WAS RIGHT

Proprietor of Restaurant Practiced No Deceit When He Put Up the Sign.

I had to pass several hours in a certain small town in which there was no hotel, writes a Companion contributor. Late in the afternoon I saw on a window the words, "Restaurant. Quick Service," and I was so hungry that I made up my mind to take a chance.

I entered a very long, low-studded room, evidently occupied at one time as a bowling alley. A broken, dilapidated show case stood on the cheaply built board counter. Two or three dirty glass jars contained some broken candy. A few ancient-looking cookies lay in a box with a glass front. Two tables with eight chairs each and a few poorly printed signs that bore the bill of fare comprised the furnishings of the place. No one was visible. I sat down at the table and instantly a harsh voice appeared to proceed from the solid wall behind me. "What'll ye have?" it said.

From the eatables announced on the different signs I chose "Cold Beans, 10 Cents," and as the inquiry was evidently aimed at me I shouted back, "Beans for one!" I had scarcely uttered the words when out of the door in the partition at the lower end of the room shot a tall man on roller skates. He wore a red undershirt and corduroy trousers.

With a grinding, roaring noise he bore down upon me. As he shot past my table he slid the plate of beans within an inch of my lap, at the same time shouting, "Cough up!" Still skating on, he reached the front of the room, described a figure eight near the door, and started to return. I had the dime ready, and as he flew past he scooped it up, and would no doubt have taken the table cover along, too, were it not for the fact that it was made of oilcloth and nailed down.

I ate about one-third of the beans and had enough.—Youth's Companion.

CHILDREN'S KIDNEYS

No Hopkinsville Mother Should Neglect the Little One's Health.

Often times weak kidneys cause great annoyance and embarrassment to children. Inability to control the kidney secretions, at night or while at play, is attributed to carelessness and too frequently the child is punished. Parents having children troubled with kidney weakness would do well to treat the kidneys with a tested and proven kidney remedy. If there is pain in the back, discolored urine, irregular urination, headaches, dizzy spells or a tired, worn-out feeling, try Doan's Kidney Pills at once. A remedy that has been used in kidney troubles for over 50 years and has been recommended by thousands. Proof of merit in a Hopkinsville citizen's statement.

Mrs. J. T. Cannon, 609 O'Neal St., Hopkinsville, Ky., says: "I have given Doan's Kidney Pills to my children at various times and have always found them beneficial. Whenever one of my children are bothered with kidney weakness, a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills relieve the attack."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Cannon recommends. Foster-McMunn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Advertisement.

Foundation of Cotton.

When the Leasowe lighthouse, England, was built on the sandy Wirral shore the builders were puzzled by the lack of a suitable foundation for the masonry tower. An ingenious way out of the difficulty was effected. In the vicinity an incoming ship, laden with a cargo of cotton, had gone ashore and had become a total wreck. The cotton was useless for its intended purpose, so the bales were salvaged and dumped into the sand at the point where the lighthouse was to be erected. The fleshy mass settled into the sand, and under compression became as solid as a rock, while its permanency was assured by its complete submersion. The stability of this strange foundation may be gathered from the fact that the tower erected thereon stood, and shed its welcome light regularly every night, for about a century and a half, only being extinguished two or three years ago, as it was no longer required.

The managers of the Hopkinsville Building & Loan Association are Geo. C. Long, Pres't. J. D. McGowan, R. A. Rogers, C. W. Ducker and W. A. Long. The secretary, John Stites, the Treasurer, Thos. W. Bong, office at the First National Bank.—Advertisement.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

RICHES IN AMAZON VALLEY

Rubber Planters Have Learned Need of Producing Their Own Supplies, and Prosperity Has Followed.

"It will be a long time before the supply of rubber in the Amazon valley has been exhausted, notwithstanding the cry of prophets that the days of rubber prosperity have ended forever," declared R. W. Hardy of Valparaiso, Chile, at Washington. "In February of this year, as compared with the preceding month, the shipments increased by nearly 4,500,000 pounds, or 60 per cent. The rejuvenation of the industry in Brazil is assured; also in the eastern provinces of Peru. Some months ago a man named La Torre established a rubber plantation of 80,000 trees, 30,000 of which were fourteen years old. This is not the only plantation, however, that has been established. There are scores of them scattered through Brazil. The long-continued depression in the rubber market, far from disheartening rubber producers, taught them the much-needed lesson of not only producing rubber, but enough additional products to supply them with food and some reserve crops.

"In other words, the Amazon valley has been taught economy. The experts had said that Amazon rubber could not possibly be produced under a certain minimum price, and the highest factor in their calculations was the heavy cost of supplies in a region where all supplies were imported from markets 1,000 miles distant. This factor has now been eliminated. The Amazon valley is growing its own supplies in one of the most beneficent climates on the face of the earth."

Rheumatism Pains Stopped.

J. M. RENSHAW SHOT DOWN BY AN ASSASSIN.

All night search was made for the assassins. A good many citizens of the vicinity assisted in the search.

The negro arrested and held on suspicion gives the name of Dillard Young and is said to be from Alabama. He claimed he had been working at New Providence and that he spent Friday night with his sister there. The woman was seen and said she hadn't seen him since last Tuesday.

Sheriff Smith is working hard on the case, but no new developments have been reported.

Mr. Renshaw's condition was unchanged yesterday afternoon.

Sheriff in 1908.

Mr. Renshaw is about 65 years of age and is a Republican. He was appointed sheriff in 1908 when David Smith was ousted on a technicality. He was the Republican nominee in 1913 and was defeated by Jewell Smith, son of David Smith. Mr. Renshaw has long been a prominent and substantial citizen. He lived in the city in 1908 and was an earnest advocate of law and order during the night rider troubles. Prior to coming to town he ran a store at Era, Northwest of town. A few years ago he bought the present home on the Clarksville pike and has since engaged in stock farming, making a specialty of raising ponies on a large scale.

Somerset's Female Cop.

Somerset is probably the first town in Kentucky to have a woman policeman. The City Council gave Miss Lena Hamm a position on a three months' experiment. She is known as policeman No. 5. The women of Somerset asked that she be appointed.

POSTOFFICE TO BE MOVED

On October 1st To Main Street Near The Corner of Eleventh.

IN COOPER-DAVIS BUILDING.

Necessary To Surrender Old Site And New Building Is Not Ready.

The postoffice will be moved temporarily to the Cooper-Davis building next door to the Pennyroyal Building on Main, on October 1st. This change is necessary from the fact that the lease on the Elb building where the postoffice has been located for many years, has expired and the new Government building in the same block will not be ready for occupancy for several months.

Postmaster Williamson received definite instructions Saturday to go ahead and make the change on Wednesday. The new site is a large store room occupied until recently by a tenpin alley.

DR. WALL DIDN'T GO

With The Delegation of Young Surgeons to France.

New York, Sept. 28.—The call by Dr. Joseph A. Blake, the American surgeon in charge of the American hospital corps attending wounded soldiers in Paris hospitals, was responded to by seven young surgeons, hospital graduates, who sailed as passengers on the White Star liner Olympic last Saturday.

The seven physicians were Drs. A. H. Dugdale, Omaha; Mercer Blanchard, Columbus, Ga.; Corry, J. P. Hoguet, Benjamin Joblons, Lester Rogers and Richard Derby, of New York.

Mr. J. T. Wall, of this city, received a telegram from his son, Dr. J. A. Wall, Friday evening, saying that he would not go as had been announced and that a letter would follow.

Hidden In Hen's Nest.

Mayfield, Ky., A raid by Policemen Sam Mahan and Sam Yarbrough discovered a unique way of hiding whisky by bootleggers. The premises of Mike Chilcut were given a thorough searching which looked futile, but finally they found a large hole in the ground under a box supposed to contain a hen's nest. A number of bottles of whisky were found and confiscated by the officers.

COURT OF APPEALS

Decides Fine Point in Liquor Traffic Case From Pulaski County.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 28.—"When a man not only manufactures whisky, but has it in his possession and has a government license authorizing him to sell it in local option territory, these facts are sufficient to sustain a conviction," said the court of appeals this morning in affirming a fine of $100 and sentence of fifty days in jail imposed on G. C. Gossett by the Pulaski circuit court for having liquor in his possession for sale in "dry" territory.

"Peruna Cured Me"

MR. ROBERT FOWLER,
Of Okarche, Oklahoma.

Dr. Robert Fowler, Okarche, Oklahoma, writes:

"To any sufferer of catarrh of the stomach, I am glad to tell my friends or sufferers of catarrh that seventeen years ago I was past work of any kind, due to stomach troubles. I tried almost every known remedy without any result."

"Finally I tried Peruna, and am happy to say I was benefited by the first bottle, and after using a full treatment I was entirely cured."

"I am now seventy years old, and am in good health, due to always having Peruna at my command. I would not think of going away from home for any length of time without taking a bottle of Peruna along for emergency."

"You are at liberty to use my picture and testimony if you think it will help any one who has stomach trouble."

OLD TIME FROST

Col. H. C. West Tells About One
Sept., 24, 1856.

"The night of the 24th of September, 1856," Col. H. C. West told a Paducah Democrat man, "was the biggest frost so early in the year I had ever seen before or have ever seen since. That evening I left Nashville, Tenn., for Hopkinsville, Ky., my native heath, in an old-fashioned stage. I traveled all night and it is a fact that it was so cold that I thought I would freeze. My route was from Nashville to Clarksville, Tenn., and thence to Hopkinsville. As it took me twenty-four hours to make the trip I was riding all the next day. Early in the morning we got our first glance at the frost and it was heavy I assure you. It was about 10 o'clock when we reached the Clarksville section and the sun had been shining for some time. We had before then noticed that the frost had nipped all crops likely to be damaged, but then we noticed that everything was black and that tobacco and tomatoes and like crops were 'bitten' to the very ground. The tobacco at that hour was as black as one's hat and not even a sucker had escaped the nipping. The frost was widespread in Tennessee and Western Kentucky and the damage was likewise. Every old citizen I am sure will recall the visitation, though many may have forgotten just the date. The trip was an important one to me—for I was then cashier of a bank at Paris, Tenn., and had been to Nashville on important business and was going to my old home also on important business—and I keep the date and facts—the frost included—in a diary which I still have. Often reference to the dairy has kept the frost on my mind and every recurring September 24th I think of it."

Weather For The Week.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Normal fall weather, with little rain, was forecast by the weather bureau tonight for the week.

"There will be showers," the bulletin says, "attending a disturbance that will appear in the far west and move eastward, crossing the central valleys about Wednesday and the eastern states Thursday or Friday. Otherwise the week will be one of generally fair weather."

"This disturbance will be preceded by rising temperature and be followed by a change of cooler weather over the northern half of the country."

"Temperatures during the week will average near the normal over practically all parts of the country."

VILLA WOULD RULE OR RUIN.

Demands That Carranza Resign
as Price of His Own Good Behavior.

Mexico City, Sept. 28.—Gen. Alvaro Obregon, the Carranza commander, and three generals left here yesterday for Aguascalientes to meet a commission from Gen. Francisco Villa's army in an attempt to adjust differences between Gen. Villa and Carranza.

Officials here are hopeful that a peaceful solution of the problem may be found.

Immediate resignation of Gen. Venustiano Carranza from the supreme command of the constitutionalists is Gen. Francisco Villa's only basis of adjustment of the present difficulties, according to his reply to messages from officials in Mexico City who protested against Villa's defection from his former chief. Gen. Villa declared he would never accept Carranza as head of the republic.

Villa officials declared they have assurances that Zacatecas will be turned over to Villa's men without a fight.

It was learned that a Villa brigade was on the march into Sonora, the western border state, to assist Gov. Maytorena in his attacks on the Carranza forces in that state. Another strong group of Villa men is moving into Coahuila to the east.

To Continue Preaching.

Rev. E. E. Gabbard, who has occupied the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church for several months, will return to Louisville next week to resume his studies in the Presbyterian Theological Seminary for another seminary year.

After the morning services last Sunday the congregation by a rising vote, expressed their wish for Mr. Gabbard to continue coming here and preaching every Sunday morning and evening. After the sermon Sunday night the officers of the church formally made arrangements for him to continue his work here. It is probable that Mrs. Gabbard will remain here for the time named in the contract with Mr. Gabbard.

Dr. F. J. Cneek, of Danville, preached at both services and received two new members into the church. During his stay here he was the guest of his old class-mate, Mr. W. S. Davison.

Bull Helps In Battle.

The Petit Parisien prints a story of a bull which it says killed eighteen Germans. It appears that when the peasants in the neighborhood of Seznne were warned of the approach of the Germans they opened the gates of the cattle pens and endeavored to drive the cattle to a place of safety. One enormous bull, it is said, becoming enraged by the sound of the cannon fire, broke away and charged the Germans, who looked on in stupefaction, believing it was some trick of the French. At the first dash the bull gored six, throwing them high in the air. Others shot and wounded the animal which, however, gored a dozen more before succumbing.

Additional to obtaining every issue of this paper for a year, our readers will receive in "Lippincott's," 12 great complete novels by popular authors, 105 short stories, crisp, entertaining, original 15 timely articles from the pens of masters, and each month some excellent poems with the right sentiment, and "Walnuts and Wine," he most popular humor section in America. To obtain this extraordinary offer prompt action is necessary. Remit to J. B. Lippincott Company, Washington Square, Phila., Pa.

Modern Education.

A prominent school principal lately told us some of the answers found in pupils' examination papers. Here are two of them: "What is a volcano?" "A volcano is a mountain that sometimes blows the equator off." "What is the difference between a mountain and a hill?" "A hill is like a mountain, only a mountain is a little more hillier."

Dread of an Operation.

N. Manchester, Ind.—Mrs. Eva Bashore, of this place, says: "I suffered female misery of every description. Two doctors attended me, and advised an operation. I lost weight until I weighed only ninety pounds. I dreaded an operation, and, as a result, began to take Cardul. In a short time, I gained 25 pounds, and feel as well as I ever did. Cardul is today used in thousands of homes, where it relieves pain and brings back strength and ambition. It is a woman's medicine, for women's ailments, and you are urged to try it for your troubles. Ask your druggist. He will tell you about Cardul. —Advertisement.

Admired a Good Fighter.

At a certain well-known garden restaurant in St. Louis the proprietor had a parrot that often furnished a great deal of amusement. One evening when the garden was filled a tiny fox terrier pup slipped in. Polly happened to be off of her perch, walking in her pigeon toed manner as fast as her chain would allow. The pup spied her and made one grand dash for poor Polly, grabbed her, and gave her the worst shaking she'd ever had in her life. When they were finally separated Polly, standing in the midst of her ruined finery, cocked her saucy head on one side and exclaimed: "I like that pup."

EXPLAINED BY GREAT MAN

Bismarck Gave a Lucid Explanation of the Diplomatic Phrase, Entente Cordiale.

In the newspapers of today we very often find the words "entente cordiale." Most readers understand the meaning of the expression, but it is rather difficult to make a translation that expresses the exact meaning of the original French, says the Youth's Companion. Prince Bismarck gave a good explanation when his daughter asked him what the entente cordiale really was.

"Well," he said, "it is not so easy to define literally. It means a cordial understanding, but it also has a little different significance. For example: You were in the courtyard this morning when I came from the garden with Nero; Diana was in the yard, gnawing a large bone. My Nero saw her, and ran to seize the bone. Then there was a little fight, until I struck them a few sharp blows with my cane. After that the bone lay in the middle of the court, while both dogs stood off at some distance and looked eagerly at it. Each dog, in fact, was as anxious to keep the other away as he was afraid of my cane, and, therefore, neither ventured to seize it. You see, that is what they call in diplomatic circles an entente cordiale."

HAD PREFERENCE FOR CITY

Old Sam Learned Meaning of Patriotism and It Caused Him to Do a Little Thinking.

"Marse Tom," said old Sam to his employer, the grocer. "Marse Tom, ouah parson has been a-using a biggety word, 'long o' late, and Ah don't know what it means. De word's 'patriotic.' Whut does it mean, boss?"

"Why, Sam," said the grocer, "patriotic means loyal, having love for the country, don't you know, Sam? Here we may be on the verge of war with Mexico and every man is full of patriotism. If war comes I expect to close up my store and go off to fight. I'm patriotic. And I expect each one of my employes to go to war, too. I expect them to be patriotic, too."

"You're patriotic, aren't you, Sam? You love the country, don't you?" Sam scratched his woolly head. "Well, Marse Tom," said he, "Ah was born and raised in de country, but I've lived in the city nigh on t' twenty years now. Ah used t' love de country, but Ah guess Ah likes de city best now, Marse Tom. Yes, sir!"—Louisville Times.

CONFUSING.

Insan—I see you have a new office boy. Oudts—Yes; but he is rather slow in learning the work. "What seems to be the trouble?" "Just general inexperience. For instance, every time the typewriter bell rings he runs to answer the telephone."—Youngstown Telegram.

THE OPPOSITE.

"Don't you think every woman should have some aim to broaden herself?" "Just general inexperience. For instance, every time the typewriter bell rings he runs to answer the telephone."—Youngstown Telegram.

"Good gracious, no! Lots of women are doing their best to reduce now." "Why must there be?" "Because the reports are so much in the air."

YOU KNOW HIM.

the two papers is $3.00.

"ONLY A LIVING" ON FARM

Existence in Healthful Country Compared to That of Urban Dwellers.

"We are only making a living on the farm," complained a friend not long ago, says a writer in the Breeder's Gazette. We happen to know that it is a good living, that the home is a roomy, comfortable sort of place, that there is a sleeping porch, a bathroom, a fireplace, a sunny dining room. He has cows, fowls, horses, carriages and a garden. Besides, certain improvements and soil ameliorations that he has undertaken will some day yield him far more of the fruits of the earth than he is today receiving.

Leaving this friend and his farm we took a journey and awoke to look out at a manufacturing city.
Closely set were the tall houses, dusty, smoked, between them hot and dirty streets. In such environment lives a great proportion of America's people; fewer than the half of us dwell on farms, the rest in cities.

A living? Seeing men emerging from these smoke-begrimed homes, dinner pails in hand, to go to their places of toil we remembered our friends on farms. They arise and go forth in the freshness of the dewy morning, the air is clean, the birds are all about them, the sun shines, the fresh breezes blow. There is no such toil as that of shop or office.
A living? Commend us to the living that goes with the peaceful fields.

TAGORE'S METHOD OF WORK

Hindu Poet First Hums His Inspired Lines—Best Work in Rainy Season.

It is said that in composing his verses Rabindranath Tagore hums them over to himself before writing them down. He takes great pains with the first line of a poem, and then the rest seems to go on without any effort. He has no fixed hours for writing; he just writes when the mood comes to him. He finds, however, that during the rainy season his work is more congenial, more easy, than at any other time of the year. He writes a clear, direct hand and rarely makes changes on what he has written.

He has been a very prolific writer (as the English reader, viewing but a small portion of his output—"Gi-tanjali," "Sadhana," "The Crescent Moon," "The Post Office," "Chitra" and "The Gardener"—may well believe) and if all his manuscripts were put together they would fill a small bookshop. He takes his mission modestly and quietly, and perhaps it has never even occurred to him that there will be a struggle some day among the peoples of India to get possession of his manuscripts.

HONORARY DEGREES.

The 1914 harvest of honorary degrees has been about as abundant as usual. The larger universities have bestowed their honors on men of national or international prominence, while lesser men have been honored by lesser colleges. It is a pleasant and harmless pastime.

The chief objection is that the titles are altogether meaningless.
The degree of LL. D. is universally considered the highest honor that can be bestowed by an American university. It is given with a naive disregard of whether or not its recipient has any knowledge of law. The same may be said of Oxford's D. C. L., which has been handed to American Ambassadors Pugs. The degree of doctor of laws or doctor of common law held by men who have never made a study of law is sufficiently incongruous. — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

TOLD NO LIE.

She (sarcastically)—You were sitting up with a sick friend, I suppose.

He—Yes.

She—Perhaps, sir, you'll be good enough to tell me his complaint.

He—Sure! He complained that we stacked the cards on him. He was good and sick, all right.

A GARDEN FEAT.

"I see," said a bright local newspaper man, noted for his ready wit,
"that they are establishing a roof garden on the City hall."

"How so?" asked a co-laborer, not so ready.

"Don't you see them planting the flowers?"

MEASURED BY THE RESULTS

Accomplishment Alone Should Be Made the Estimate of the Day's Work.

A day's work, if properly done, is not measured in time. Eight or ten hours does not constitute a day's work, and that length of application means nothing if there are no results.

The hours you put in stand for nothing, especially when you are your own boss. At the end of the day, however, go home and talk it over with yourself. Find out if what you've done during the long hours you've been on duty really merits consideration. What have they brought you in actual results? Have they been the means of bringing you business tomorrow? A man may stand around a store many long hours and still not get anywhere.
What he thinks and what he does are two entirely different propositions.

Outline tonight what you intend to do tomorrow. When you go to work in the morning do what you have outlined the night before. Make every hour count. Make it bring business. If all your working hours are bringing results and paying the way for bigger business in the future, then you may go home satisfied with what you have done and knowing that you have put in a real day's work. Measure the volume of your accomplishments not by hours but by what it represents to you in dollars and cents.—C. E. Johnson, in Cleveland Leader.

BEST OF ALL

She—Give me the name of a good stove lifter.
He—Gasoline.

NO FEAR OF PLAGUE.

Commendable is the calmness of New Orleans in facing an invasion by bubonic plague and the readiness of the local and state authorities to co-operate with the experienced plague fighters of the federal health service. It is only half a dozen years ago that San Francisco foolishly adopted a policy of concealment in a similar case and was forced in the end to tell the truth and accept the help of the government. There are southern youths not yet of voting age who can remember the cruel, costly and futile shotgun quarantines against yellow fever, which readily yields to more scientific measures.
The plague is surely no more dangerous. It is in its true bubonic form very little infectious; the bacillus is easily killed by heat and germicides; it thrives only upon filth and malnutrition; and, whether or not the lymph treatment is perfected, the disease gives up to wise sanitary precautions.—New York World.

EFFECTIVE REPARTEE.

Repartee with hecklers is no easy task and a retort always sounds more witty than it looks in black and white. Besides, the spontaneity must be taken into consideration.

At a recent election a man in the crowd called out to a girl speaker:

"You think you're a dedicated woman? Well, then, how many toes has a pig got?"

"Take off your shoes and count," was the reply.

DEATH TO CHICKENS.

Redd—I see this paper says there are 11,000,000 chickens in Minnesota.

Greene—Well, that may be. I never went through Minnesota in my automobile.

SOLICITOUS.

"Is your wife fond of dancing?"

"Not as fond as I wish she was," replied Mr. Meekton. "Henrietta ought to have more relaxation. I hate to see a woman so intellectual."

TUNNEL UNDER THE CHANNEL

Interest In Its Construction As Means of Transporting Soldiers.

London, Sept. 28.—The clash of war among the nations of Europe has not modified the views of the supporters of the channel tunnel whose desire to build a tunnel from Dover to Calais has been blocked for years by the military authorities on the ground that it would destroy England's insularity.

Several peers and members of parliament who have long shown an interest in the scheme, declare that instead of proving of assistance to the enemy, a channel tunnel would be of supreme importance in transporting the British army.

They declare they will continue the advocacy of the tunnel at the end of the war. The precautions suggested to prevent the tunnel being made use of include the flooding of a dip in the tunnel, commanding exits with guns that could not be silenced from the sea, and an electric button that might touch off an explosion to destroy a part of the tunnel if necessary.

Best Twins.

Paducah now has the honor of being the nativity of the best twins in Kentucky. The two-year-old twin daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sexton, who formerly lived on Trimble near Nashville, took first prize for the best pair of infant infants at the Kentucky State fair at Louisville last week. The Sextons moved to Louisville from here about a year ago. Mrs. Ike Sexton, of this city, is the grandmother of the prize babies.—News-Democrat.

Wet Speaker Egged.

Henderson, Ky., Sept. 28.—While delivering an anti-prohibition speech last Thursday night at Smith Mills in the local option election pending in this county, C. Homer Durand, of Cincinnati, Ohio, was the target for several rotten eggs thrown by persons in the rear of the audience. Their aim was poor and the missiles failed to strike their mark but fell

STORY OF PLAY

To be Presented at Rex To-morrow.

Pledging to revenge the execution of his brother, whom the District Attorney caused to be convicted, Richard Allen, a quaint individual who takes a delight in concealing his identity by playing the role of a valet to an extravagant young man in New York, plots for the downfall of the prosecutor and educates his cleverest female crook, "Three-Arm Fanny," with a view to having her fascinate and marry the District Attorney.

The Master Mind, under various disguises, informs the District Attorney that he will receive the four aces at certain intervals, and when he receives the ace of spades, the end will be near.

Richard Allen, known as the Master Mind, conceives many diabolical plots looking forward to the ruination of his enemy, the District Attorney, and finally succeeds in arousing his anger and jealousy, and is about to crush the unsuspecting Attorney when "Three-Arm Fanny," who has really fallen in love with her husband, pleads with the Master Mind to withdraw, and the Master Mind, who has come to love Fanny, himself, does withdraw through love for her, and disappears, to be seen no more.

The powerful gang of crooks, over which he held a formidable leadership, is disbanded, and the District Attorney, not knowing that Fanny is a reformed crook, goes on in his own way, becomes Governor of the State, and everything ends as it should.

FINE MUSIC AT THE FAIR

Third Regiment Band Has Secured Several Extra Men.

3 FIRST CLASS CORNETISTS.

Director Lebkuecher Has Increased Aggregation To 25.

The musical feature of the first county fair last year was pronounced one of the most pleasing. The visitors were loud in their praise and the reputation of the Third Regiment Band was well sustained, but Director Lebkuecher has arranged for a more varied program this week, and to that end, after considerable correspondence, has secured extra performers.

H. L. LEBKUECHER.

Mr. W. B. Scott, of Nashville, who won much favorable comment last year as a tenor, vocalist and cornetist, came yesterday to be with the band during the week.

Mr. John G. Miller, of Chattanooga, another cornetist of wide reputation, has also been secured for the six days, as well as Mr. Jas. Able, of Nashville, who is another cornetist who stands in the front of musicians.

In addition to the above fine performers, Director Lebkuecher has also secured the service of Mr. John Suider, one of the best known performers on the trombone, who will be with the band boys during the fair, while J. A. Cunningham, of Nashville, a vaudeville performer, and probably the best snare drummer in the South, an expert with cymbals, bells and many other instruments, will lend variety to a most excellent program.

The public may rest assured that musical programs during all the days will be better than even last year, which is saying a great deal. Lebkuecher and his men will win new laurels this week and their music will delight everybody.

Announcement.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its regular meeting to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Christian church. Business of importance will be considered. Every member is urged to be present. The new members are especially asked to attend. Every woman who is at all interested in the elimination of the saloon is invited. We feel that the fight has just begun and the victory will be ours in the end. Come and help us to make plans and work to this end.

Firebug Tries To Burn The Wilkins Store at Fairview Friday Night.

DISCOVERED JUST IN TIME.

Lighted Fuse of Lampwicks Had Been Run Through Wall Into Oil Barrel.

An attempt was made to burn the grocery store of Ed Wilkins & Bro., at Fairview Friday night. A piece of weather-boarding had been torn off and a slow fuse made of lamp wicks had been run to a barrel of coal oil. This was discovered by a young man named Jas. Johnson, who passed the store in the night. He put out the blazing wick and notified Mr. Wilkins.

The building is of frame and is adjoining the Masonic building. If the incendiary had succeeded in his purpose, the whole business section of the town would have been destroyed as there is no way to put out fires. The Wilkins Brothers made an assignment the same day to R. A. Cook and the keys were turned over to the assignee. The building is owned by John W. Yancey.
